ARTICLE I
PURPOSE & OBJECTIVES

This document shall be the Constitution and Bylaws of SEIU Local 221. This Local Union and the labor movement will be instrumental in improving the professional status, wages, hours, and working conditions of our members and improving the lives of workers and their families. This Union will be influential in addressing the social, political and economic issues affecting their communities and working families at large.

SEIU Local 221 will be a leader in the labor movement in Southern California. We will accomplish this by engaging in political, legislative, educational, civic, welfare and other activities which further, directly or indirectly, the interests of the membership of this Local Union and all working people. We will partner with other organizations, coalitions, partnerships and unions to accomplish this.

This Local Union shall as an affiliate of the International Union, carry out all the objectives of the International Union and shall represent, protect, maintain, and advance the interests of the workers within its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE II
AFFILIATION

This Local Union shall be affiliated with the Service Employees International Union, the California State Council, the Canadian Labor Congress, CTW, and all other bodies of federation as required by the International Union Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE III

JURISDICTION

In order to form a strong and democratic structure in which to organize and represent public sector and publicly-funded workers in the Southern Region of California, this Local Union has been established and chartered in accordance with Article XIV of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Service Employees International Union. This Local Union shall have jurisdiction to organize public sector and publicly-funded workers in the Southern Region of California, including in the counties of San Diego and Imperial, except as it may conflict with such exclusive jurisdiction that has been granted to other SEIU local unions in California.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

All persons, without regard to race, creed, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, ancestry, age, or disability, subject to the exceptions contained in applicable law and these Bylaws, shall be eligible for full membership, affiliate membership, and/or retired member status. Every member, by virtue of her/his membership in this Local Union, is obligated to follow the terms of the International Constitution and Bylaws and those of this Local Union.

A. Terms and Conditions

1. In order for a member to be in good standing, her/his full dues must be paid on/or before the last day of each month in which they fall due.
2. No member shall interfere with the elected officers or agents appointed by the Executive Board in the performance of their duties. Each member shall adhere to the terms and conditions of pertinent collective bargaining agreements and shall refrain from any conduct that would interfere with the performance by this Local Union of its legal or contractual obligations.

3. No member shall engage in disaffiliation or shall slander or libel this Local Union, its members, or its officers, or be a party to any activity to secure the disestablishment of this Local Union as the collective bargaining agent of any bargaining unit.
4. The fact that a person may be eligible for membership does not require this Local Union to admit her/him to membership. The Executive Board shall resolve any dispute regarding membership or eligibility for membership. Refusing membership to an eligible person shall require a two-thirds majority of the Executive Board.
5. The Executive Board shall issue its findings within ten (10) days of its decision on membership and/or appeals in regards to membership.

B. Categories of Membership

1. Member: A member must have an employment relationship with an employer for which Local 221 is recognized as the exclusive bargaining agent on matters relating to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, or must be a member of the Local 221 staff, and must pay at least the minimum dues for members as established by Local 221. Members shall have the right to vote on all Local Union matters that affect the collective bargaining relationship of their bargaining unit with the employer such as the bargaining team, contract proposals and contract ratification/rejection, and strikes. Members shall be eligible to hold elected office in the Local Union and Chapter Office in the chapter to which they belong, including the positions of chapter officer, executive board member, delegate, negotiating team member, etc., subject to the terms of the International Union Constitution and Bylaws and the Local 221 Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Affiliate: A person having no employment relationship with a bargaining unit represented by Local 221 and who pays at least the minimum dues as established by Local 221 shall be eligible for affiliate status only. Affiliates are not entitled to representation by the Local Union in any grievance, litigation, personnel board, or civil service matter; however, the Local Union may decide, at the sole discretion of the Executive Board, to represent an affiliate if the Local Union deems it to be in its collective interest to do so. Affiliates shall not be eligible to vote in Local Union or Chapter elections nor hold Local or Chapter Office.

3. Retiree: Upon retirement from employment with a recognized bargaining unit within SEIU, persons may join the Retired Chapter and become a Retired Member, as enumerated below:

- a. A retired member shall be defined as a member of the Retired Members' Chapter of Local 221 who pays the minimum dues for membership established by Local 221. Retired members shall not be eligible to vote in Local Union or Chapter elections nor hold Local or Chapter Office other than the Retiree Chapter.
- b. Retirees shall have the right to form a Retiree Chapter with the purpose to support these bylaws.

C. Representation: Every member, by virtue of their membership in this Local Union, authorizes this Local Union to act as their bargaining representative. The Local Union may decline to process a grievance, complaint or dispute, if in its judgment such grievance, complaint, or dispute lacks merit under the collective bargaining agreement(s), subject to appeal to the Executive Board.

ARTICLE V DIVISIONS

A. This Local Union shall be composed of Divisions. Such Divisions shall be as follows:

1. Cities
2. Counties (Community Services, General, Health and Human Services, Public Safety)
3. Courts/Special Districts
4. Head Start
5. Registered Nurses
6. Schools

- B. In addition to the seats provided for Officers and Committee Chairs, each Division shall be entitled to the following seats on the Executive Board in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 - Elections:

DIVISION	NUMBER OF SEATS
Cities	1
Counties: Community Services, General, Health and Human Services, and Public Safety	4
Courts/Special Districts	1
Registered Nurses	1
Schools	1

- C. The representatives for each Division shall be elected by the membership of their Divisions in accordance with Article 8 - Elections of the Bylaws of this Local Union. The Executive Board may create or dissolve new Divisions, which might lead to the addition or subtraction of Executive Board seats. In the event of the Executive Board creating a new Division, the President shall appoint a Division Representative(s) for the new Division, who shall serve until the next election of the Executive Board. The appointed Representative(s) shall have full rights and privileges as a member of the Executive Board during the period of her/his appointment.
- D. Should any of these Division representative positions become vacant due to resignation, death, termination of membership, or for any other reason, including the inability to serve, the President shall appoint a successor; the successor shall be confirmed by the Executive Board at its next meeting.

ARTICLE VI CHAPTERS

The Overall intent of this Article is to provide uniform guidelines that insure equality in the Chapter creation and maintenance processes for this Local Union.

- A. Any bargaining unit or group of employees represented by this Local Union may request Chapter status to the President which s/he shall present with a recommendation to the Executive Board for final determination. Only Chapters as approved by the Executive Board shall have official Chapter status in this Local Union. SEIU Local 221 will set compliance rules for Chapters operations in order to meet fiduciary and legal standards.

- B. A Chapter shall consist of a bargaining unit or group of employees under the jurisdiction of this Local Union based on such criteria as the employer, the job classification(s), a geographical area, or any other criteria the Executive Board may determine. A Chapter may be established at any time by the Executive Board, subject to criteria, rules, and regulations adopted by the Executive Board.

- C. Each Chapter shall be responsible for activities representing its members within its jurisdiction. Each Chapter shall have the authority to adopt policies and Bylaws suitable to the needs of its membership. A copy of all Chapter Bylaws and Chapter Bylaws changes and/or amendments shall be submitted to the Executive Board for review so as to insure that there is no conflict with the International Constitution and Bylaws or with the Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union. Chapter Bylaws shall not become effective until approved by the Executive Board.

- D. Chapters must strive to meet the following requirements:
 - 1. Elect officers by secret ballot at least every three (3) years to include the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Additional officers may be elected as deemed necessary by the individual Chapter

- a. All Chapter elections shall take place a year after the election of the Executive Board of this Local Union.
2. Develop and present to the Executive Board a set of Bylaws specific to the needs of that Chapter
3. Review its Bylaws every five (5) years from the date the Executive Board ratification as a means to do the following:
 - a. Provide an opportunity for Chapters to amend/update their Bylaws to enhance best business practices
 - b. Review the actual implementation of these Bylaws in the business practices of the Chapters
4. Hold a membership meeting at least quarterly
5. Maintain accurate financial records (if applicable) and minutes for all Chapter and membership meetings.
 - a. Chapters shall forward copies of the aforementioned documents to the Executive Board on a quarterly basis
6. All Chapter officers must be members within a bargaining unit represented by that Chapter
7. No Chapter shall be bound by the action of another Chapter unless such action has been presented and adopted as an action of the Executive Board.
8. No Chapter shall be empowered to contract financial obligations for which any liability would attach to this Local Union. No Chapter may hire staff to conduct the business of this Local Union.
9. Chapters have the option to raise their own funds for activities determined to be of Chapter interest; however, these activities shall not conflict with this Local Union's mission, policies, and/or goals.

For the purposes of this section, the term “member” shall include agency fee payer and comparable fee payer, and the term “dues” shall include agency service fees and comparable fees.

Dues of members are due and payable on or before the last day of the current month, and in order for a member to be in good standing his or her dues must be paid on or before the last day of each month. All other financial obligations of the Local Union must likewise be paid on or before the last day of the month in which they fall due.

All records of the Local pertaining to income, disbursements and financial transactions of any kind whatsoever must be kept for a period of at least six years, or longer if required by applicable law.

Categories of Membership:

The Local may establish different categories of membership and rates of dues for retired members and associate members:

Regular Members: Members employed in a bargaining unit represented by the Local Union or employed by the local Union and paying the prescribed regular dues.

Associate Member: Persons not working under a collective bargaining agreement but electing to pay the associate member fee, shall be eligible for associate membership status in the Local. Such members shall not have the right to vote or to hold office in the Local Union.

Retired Member: Any person retired from any employment of which this Local Union has jurisdiction and who elects to pay the retiree fees. Retired members must have been members in good standing of the Local Union continuously for a period of one year prior to retirement. Such members shall not have the right to vote or to hold office in this Local Union.

Organizing Member: Persons working in a recently organized bargaining unit that has not signed a collective bargaining agreement and has not yet started paying regular dues. Such members shall not have the right to vote or hold office in this Local Union.

Except as noted above, Members of the Local Union shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership accorded by the International Union bylaws.

Minimum Dues:

Effective January 1, 2009, for all members who have annual earnings of less than $5,500.00, the minimum dues shall be equal to $20.00 per month.

Effective January 1, 2009, for all members who have annual earnings between $5,500.00 and $16,000.00, the minimum dues shall be equal to $24.00 per month. Effective January 1, 2010 through January 1, 2012, the minimum monthly dues for all members with annual earnings between $5,500 and $16,000.00 shall be increased by $1.00 annually, effective January 1 of each year.

Maximum Dues Cap:

Subject to a waiver granted under Article XV, Section 6(b) of the SEIU 2008 Constitution and Bylaws, as adopted at the SEIU 2008 Convention, the maximum limitation on the dues amount per member shall be $27.04 per biweekly pay period, or equivalent, effective January 1, 2009. Effective January 1, 2010 through January 1, 2012, the maximum limitation on the dues amount per member shall be increased by $1.00 per pay period on an annual basis, effective January 1 of each year.

If the inflation rate, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, exceeds the $1.00 per pay period annual adjustment rate, the annual per pay period adjustment may be based upon the average monthly Consumer Price Index for the preceding 12 month period.

Per Pay Period Dues Calculation:

Effective January 1, 2009, for all members who have base annual earnings greater than $16,000.00 per year, dues shall be calculated under the Local Union's dues standard formula, to a maximum of $702.94 per year, as follows:

Biweekly Deduction:

Full Time $6.67 base rate + (.85 x hourly rate)

Part Time $6.67 base rate + (.65 x hourly rate)

Retirees $6.00 per month flat rate

Semi Monthly and Monthly dues formulas, and dues formulas for Chapters and Cities that are below the standard rate will remain unchanged, with the exception of the mandated annual increases for 2010, 2011, and 2012.

ARTICLE XIV
CHARGES, TRIALS AND PENALTIES

In order to ensure members' protection from the filing of frivolous charges, the following procedures shall apply:

- A. This Local Union and its officers or members may be charged with:
1. Violation of any specific provision of these Bylaws or of the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union
 2. Violation of an oath of office
 3. Gross disloyalty or conduct unbecoming a member
 4. If an officer, gross inefficiency which might hinder and impair the interests of the International Union or this Local Union
 5. Financial malpractice
 6. Engaging in corrupt or unethical practices or racketeering
 7. Advocating or engaging in dual unionism or secession
 8. Violation of democratically and lawfully established rules, regulations, policies or practices of the International Union or of this Local Union
 9. The wrongful taking or retaining of any money, books, papers or any other property belonging to the International Union or this Local Union; or the wrongful destruction, mutilation or erasure of any books, records, bills, receipts, vouchers, or other property of the International Union or this Local Union
 10. Working as a strikebreaker or violating wage or work standards established by the International Union or this Local Union
 11. The bringing of false charges against a member or officer without good faith or with malicious intent
- B. Charges must be specific and in writing.
1. Charges against any member or officer of this Local Union shall be filed in duplicate with the Secretary of this Local Union, who shall serve a copy thereof on the accused either personally or by registered or certified mail, directed to the last known address of the accused, at least ten (10) days before the hearing upon the charges. The charges must specify the events or acts which the charging party believes constitute a basis for charges and must state which subsection(s) of Section 1 of this Article the charging party believes has been violated. If the charges are not specific, the trial body may dismiss the charges either before or at the hearing, but the charging party shall have the right to refile more detailed charges which comply with this Section. No charges may be filed more than six (6) months after the charging party learned, or could have reasonably learned, of the act or acts which are the bases of the charges.

2. The Executive Board of this Local Union shall act as or appoint the trial body, unless the Constitution and Bylaws of the Local Union provide for another trial procedure. The accused may appear in person and with witnesses to answer the charges against him or her and shall be afforded a full and fair hearing. The accused may select a member of his or her Local Union, or an attorney if the Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union so permit, to represent the accused in the presentation of a defense.
3. If the charges, or any portion thereof, are sustained, then the trial body shall render judgment and impose disciplinary action as provided for in this Constitution and Bylaws. If the charges are not sustained, the same shall be dismissed and the accused restored to full rights of membership or office in this Local Union.
4. If the Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union so provides, the decision of the trial body shall be reported to the next regular membership meeting of this Local Union for such action as is provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union.
5. If the International President believes that charges filed against an officer of this Local Union involve a situation which may seriously jeopardize the interests of this Local Union or the International Union, the International President may suspend such officer from office in this Local Union until a decision has been reached.

6. The International President may assume original jurisdiction:
 - a. If this Local Union, the Local Union Executive Board, a Local Union officer or a Local Union member, or members, believe that the charges filed against a member or officer of this Local Union involve a situation which may seriously jeopardize the interests of this Local Union or the International Union or that the hearing procedure of this Local Union will not completely protect the interests of a member, officer or Local Union and such party requests that the International President assume original jurisdiction.
 - b. If the International President as a result of an investigation believes that the charges filed against a member or officer involve a situation which may seriously jeopardize the interests of this Local Union or the International Union, the International President may assume original jurisdiction over the matter. Upon the International President assuming original jurisdiction, the International President may remove the proceedings from the trial body of this Local Union and, upon at least ten (10) days notice, hold a hearing on the charges either personally or before a hearing officer or officers (who need not be a member or members of this organization) designated by the International President. The International President shall make the decision upon the record taken at the hearing and the report of the hearing officer or officers.

- C. In all hearings or trials provided for herein, if the member filing charges is a member of the trial body, he or she may appear and be heard in support of the charges, but shall be ineligible to participate in the consideration of or the decision on such charges. If the accused is unable or unwilling to be present at any hearing provided for herein, a defense may be presented in writing. In default of appearance or defense, the trial body shall proceed with the hearing regardless of the absence of the accused.

- D. The trial body, after requisite due process has been afforded, may impose such penalty as it deems appropriate and as the case requires.
- E. An appeal to the International Executive Board may be taken by either the accused or the member filing the charges from any decision of this Local Union with respect to such charges, provided such decision is a final decision under the terms of the Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union; or from a decision of the International President. Any such appeal shall be filed in writing with the International Secretary-Treasurer, by registered or certified mail, within fifteen (15) days after the decision. No specific form or formality shall be required, except that such appeal shall clearly set forth the decision being appealed and the grounds for the appeal. During the pendency of any appeal, the decision appealed from shall remain in full force, unless it is stayed by the International Executive Board. The International Executive Board may decide the appeal on the record made by the trial body or may in its discretion, upon at least ten (10) days notice, hear argument or hold a rehearing either itself or before a hearing officer or officers designated by it. The International Executive Board may affirm, reverse or modify the decision appealed from.
- F. Appeals from any decision of the International Executive Board with respect to charges may be taken to the next Convention. Any such appeal shall be filed in the same manner and within the same time as appeals to the International Executive Board. During the pendency of such appeal, the decision appealed from shall remain in full force. The appellant shall have the right to appear before an appeals committee of the Convention and, if the appellant is this Local Union or a member appealing an expulsion from membership, shall have the right to appear before the Convention itself under such conditions and for the period of time fixed by the Convention. The action of the Convention on all appeals shall be final and binding.
- G. Subject to the provisions of applicable statutes, this Local Union or any member against whom charges have been preferred and disciplinary action taken as a result thereof or who claims to be aggrieved as a result of adverse rulings or decisions rendered, agrees, as a condition of membership or affiliation and the continuation of membership or affiliation, to exhaust all remedies provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws of the International Union and this Local Union and further agrees not to file or prosecute any action in any court, tribunal or other agency until those remedies have been exhausted.

- H. The SEIU Member Bill of Rights and Responsibilities in the Union shall be enforced exclusively through the procedures provided in this Article and any decision rendered pursuant to the procedures provided for herein, including any appeals, shall be final and binding on all parties and not subject to judicial review.

ARTICLE XV AMENDMENTS

An amendment may be originated by the Executive Board of this Local Union or by a petition signed by not less than ten percent (10%) of members of this Local Union. Any proposed amendment shall not conflict with the International Constitution and Bylaws. All members shall be notified at least thirty (30) days prior to the final consideration of an amendment. All proposed amendments shall be referred to the membership of the Local Union for a vote at regular or specially called Membership Meeting with a recommendation from the Executive Board. This Constitution and Bylaws can only be amended by two-thirds (2/3) vote of all members present at the time of voting. No amendment shall be valid or become effective until approved by the International Union.

ARTICLE XVI STRIKES

No strike against any employer shall be called until strike sanction is secured from the Service Employees International Union and the Executive Board of this Local Union.

ARTICLE XVII

UNION FUNDS AND PROPERTY

The membership by majority vote at a regular or special meeting called for the purpose may authorize disbursement of Local Union funds for any purpose which aids or serves the objectives of this Local Union or the general labor movement.

This Local Union shall pay per capita tax to the International Union for any person from whom the Local Union receives revenues, whether called dues or otherwise. This Local Union shall have no right to pay any bills before it pays its full obligation to the International Union each month.

All records pertaining to revenues of this Local Union must be kept for a period of at least six (6) years or longer if required by applicable law.

Membership in this Local Union shall not vest any member any right, title, or interest in or to the funds, property, or other assets of this Local Union, now owned and possessed, or that may hereafter be acquired, and each members hereby expressly waives any rights, title, or interest in or to the property of this Local Union, including the funds of this Local Union.

ARTICLE XVIII

DISSOLUTION

- A. The International Union shall be notified by registered or certified mail of any meeting scheduled by this Local Union or affiliated body for the purpose of taking a vote on disaffiliation from the International Union at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of such scheduled meeting and a representative of the International Union shall be afforded an opportunity to speak at such meeting. The International President shall direct whether the membership vote shall be conducted by secret ballot at a membership meeting and/or by mail referendum, and, if appropriate, a separate method by which dissenting Local Unions or members may assert their dissent. The vote shall be counted by an independent neutral party.

- B. This Local Union cannot dissolve, secede, or disaffiliate while there are seven (7) dissenting members. In the event of secession, dissolution, or disaffiliation, all properties, funds, and assets, both real and personal, of this Local Union, shall become the property of the International Union. Under no circumstances shall this Local Union distribute its funds, assets, or properties individually among its members.

ARTICLE XIX AGREEMENTS

The International Union shall be notified in writing when any collective bargaining negotiations or memoranda of understanding have been concluded, including the number of employees subject thereto. A true copy of all collective bargaining agreements and memoranda of understanding entered into by this Local Union shall, immediately upon execution, be filed with the International Union Department of Research.

ARTICLE XX INTERNATIONAL CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

The Constitution and Bylaws of this Local Union shall at all times be subordinate to the International Constitution and Bylaws, as it may be amended.
